GAY STREET M. E. CHURCH*DR. WARD MOSHER*MRS. MOSHER

Beginning next Sunday in the Gay street M. E. church, Dr. and Mrs. Ward Mosher of Ithaca, N. Y., will conduct a series of special services.

Dr. Mosher was pastor of some of the leading Methodist churches in central New York until he entered the evangelistic field, in which he has been very successful. Mrs. Mosher is the director of the choir.

These services will open next Sunday.

day. In preparation for this, a day of fasting and prayer will be observed Thursday of this week; a continuous prayer service will be held in the church beginning at 9 a. m. Members of the church will have charge for a half hour, and all are asked to come if even for a few minutes during the day. This day of prayer will close at the evening service at 7:30.

WOMAN TRIES TO END LIFE

Takes Bichloride of Mercury Tablets; Will Probably Recover

GREER, O., Dec. 27 — Mrs. Evelyn Reel, wife of John Reel, residing three miles north of this village, attempted to end her life Saturday evening by swallowing bichloride of mercury tablets said to contain in all sixteen grains.

Dr. C. L. Harmer of Danville, who was called in the case, worked heroically to save the woman's life by using a stomach pump and giving an antidote. The attending physician stated today that he believed Mrs. Reel would recover.

It is said that Mr. and Mrs. Reel had been having some family difficulties for several days and it is claimed Reel left home Saturday noon and informed his wife he would never return.

American Legion Boys Defeat
Columbus Pentagons By
50-30 Score

A large crowd saw the American Legion and Columbus Pentagon basketball teams clash at the Y. M. C. A. gym on Monday evening. This was the first home game of the ex-service men and the followers of the cage game were eager to see them perform. The ex-soldiers defeated Columbus boys by a score of 50 to 30. The visitors were clever but the veterans showed themselves a bit faster.

Some nifty and clever work was done by Sapp, Jones, Norrick, Clements and Bonds.

MAY GIVE PAGEANT AT STATE SANATORIUM

The beautiful Christmas pageant, "The Prophetic Child," presented at the Congregational church Sunday evening, may be repeated at the Ohio State Sanatorium the last of the week, it was announced today. A crowded house witnessed the performance at the church. The pageant was improved over the year previous by the addition of an extra scene and several new lighting effects. All the participants did their work well and the music was especially pleasing.

PATIENT RETURNED TO STATE HOSPITAL

Herbert Connor of Harrison township, an ex-service man, recently granted a trial visit from the state hospital, Columbus, was taken back to the institution Monday afternoon by Sheriff Lytle. It is said that Connor's condition became much worse, and that relatives asked that he be returned to the state hospital.

'Dude' Butler Released From County Jail By Justice
Geo. S. Harter

J. F. "Dude" Butler, who has been a prisoner in the county jail because of inability to pay a fine of $500 for having intoxicating liquor illegally in his possession, was given his release by Justice George S. Harter on Saturday evening.

In September Butler was fined $500 and the costs on the above charge. After service two weeks in the county jail he was released, but within two weeks he was back a second time another $500 fine having been imposed for a second offense. He has been in the county jail from October until Christmas eve.

When Butler was given his freedom he was warned that his third appearance before the court may draw a penitentiary term for him. This is the penalty provided by the Crabbe law for third offenses.

The Woolson CompanyPITY THE BLIND MAN

Some days you'll see him, slowly, hesitatingly, feeling his way. At other times he has a guide who quickly leads him where he wants to go.

When you shop without advance knowledge of where to go to get the best, you are FEELING YOUR WAY.

The advertisements in the newspapers are guides. They will tell you where to go to get the best—QUICKLY.

And they are a guarantee of satisfaction. The consistent advertiser pays money to tell you about his goods. He KNOWS they are good—he backs them with his money BECAUSE HE BELIEVES they'll satisfy. Only merchandise which is consistently good can be consistently advertised.

Read the advertisements and buy the advertised products. Don't spend your money blindly. Get dollar's worth for a dollar by buying products that have proved their worth under the glare of publicity.
